Daniel Nisbet Suspension

Far Hills, NJ – The International Golf Federation has been advised that Daniel Nisbet, an amateur golfer from Australia, has been found guilty of possession of a prohibited substance by the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Australia and has been suspended for 18 months (25 November 2009 to 24 May 2011). The suspension is recognised under the Anti-Doping Policy of the International Golf Federation. Any enquiries relating to this decision should be directed to the Australian Sports Anti-Doping Authority.
